GENERAL INTENSIVE ENGLISH ARTICULATION

Articulation

Successful completion of the General English course at Upper-Intermediate level enables direct entry into vocational courses with an English language entry requirement of IELTS 6.0 (or equivalent).

LEVEL	DESCRIPTION	DURATION	PATHWAY
Elementary	Students who have none or the Beginner's level of English and would like to improve their English language skills to reach the CEFR A2 level. They would typically be someone who has limited to no prior knowledge of English. Furthermore, they might struggle with basic vocabulary, simple sentence structures, and understanding every-day conversations. These students would benefit from focused instruction on foundational English grammar, vocabulary building exercises, and plenty of practice in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Engaging activities such as games, role-plays, and interactive exercises would be effective in keeping them motivated and helping them gradually progress towards achieving their language learning goals.	10 weeks	General English (Pre-Intermediate)
Pre-Intermediate	For students who have the Elementary level of English and aspiring to achieve the necessary level of CEFR B1, the focus will be on consolidating foundational language skills and expanding vocabulary to communicate effectively in various contexts. Pre-Intermediate learners will work towards expressing themselves with increasing fluency and accuracy, engaging in discussions on familiar topics, and providing detailed descriptions of experiences, opinions, and plans. They will develop the ability to understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics, as well as interact with native speakers with confidence, albeit with occasional errors. Additionally, Pre-Intermediate students will refine their writing skills to produce coherent texts on familiar subjects, demonstrating a growing proficiency in grammar, vocabulary and sentence structure.	10 weeks	General English (Intermediate)
Intermediate	For students who have the Pre-Intermediate level of English striving to achieve the CEFR B1 level of English proficiency with confidence and working towards CEFR B2, the emphasis is on refining language skills to effectively communicate in a variety of everyday situations with increasing confidence and accuracy. Intermediate learners will build upon their foundational knowledge to express themselves fluently, both orally and in writing, on familiar topics and activities. They will develop the ability to understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Additionally, Intermediate students will work on expanding their vocabulary and improving their grammatical accuracy to relate the main points of communication as needed to achieve their communication goals. They will engage in discussions, express opinions, and provide explanations while demonstrating a developing ability to handle more complex language structures and nuances. Through guided practice and exposure to authentic materials, Intermediate students will enhance their reading comprehension skills and refine their writing style to produce coherent texts that convey meaning effectively.	10 weeks	General English (Upper-Intermediate)
Upper-Intermediate	For students who have the Intermediate level of English and would like to attain the CEFR B2 level of English proficiency with confidence, the focus is on honing language skills to communicate confidently and effectively in a wide range of contexts. Upper Intermediate learners will build upon their existing knowledge to express themselves fluently and coherently, both orally and in writing, on a variety of topics, including those that are abstract or unfamiliar. They will develop the ability to convey opinions, discuss ideas, and support arguments with relevant examples, with occasional errors and noticeable strain. Upper Intermediate students will engage in more complex interactions, demonstrating an understanding of idiomatic expressions and colloquial language, while also refining their pronunciation and intonation. Additionally, they will work on enhancing their reading comprehension skills to understand detailed texts and produce well-structured written compositions that exhibit a higher level of grammatical accuracy and lexical diversity. Through continued practice and exposure to authentic materials, Upper Intermediate students will strive to achieve a level of English proficiency that enables them to communicate in various personal, academic, and professional settings.	10 weeks	General English (Advanced) or EAP/IELTS or vocational courses
Advanced	For students who have the Upper-Intermediate level of English and endeavouring to reach the CEFR C1 level of English proficiency, the focus shifts towards refining language skills to express themselves fluently and spontaneously with a high degree of accuracy and sophistication. Advanced learners will demonstrate evidence of fluency and spontaneity in clear, well-structured speech, even if some errors persist. They will engage in complex discussions, debates, and presentations on a wide range of topics, demonstrating a nuanced understanding of both concrete and abstract concepts. Advanced students will showcase a rich vocabulary and idiomatic expressions, allowing them to communicate effectively in diverse social and professional settings. They will comprehend complex texts, including those with implicit meaning and cultural nuances, and produce written works that are cohesive, coherent, and persuasive. While occasional errors may occur, Advanced students will exhibit a strong command of grammar, syntax, and register appropriate to the context. Through consistent practice and exposure to authentic materials, Advanced students will aim to achieve a level of English proficiency that enables them to communicate with confidence and sophistication in various academic, professional, and personal settings.	10 weeks	Vocational courses or undergraduate programs
